OAPT. BARKER'S DRAGOONS.

The Chicago Dragoons, Capt. Charles W
Barker, reached here from Camp Yates lasnight. Their horses, purchased if Chicago had proceeded them. They will be splandidly nounised and fully equiped at once. Their arms are Sabre, knappels Carbins and CultRevolvers. They will be of great service here as mounted patrols, rendered necessary by the long extent of layes to be protected.

and Pree State men are fleeting for their lives, and pouring over the Illinois. The story of their wrongs is raising the war spirit of the border inhabitents in Illinois, to the highest pitch. The condition of stars is no doubt engaging the attention of the Government, and the prospect every day grown stronger that the theatre of war will be transferred from the East to the West.

States troops, under direction of Gen. Harney took quiet possession of Camp Spring, Hyde Park, and the heights near the reservoir. Entest from Caire.

[Speaks Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

Gen. Frentiss returned from Springfield today. He has appointed S. D. Baldwin, Inspecter; J. D. Weber C, Chief of Engineers;
Taomas Sim, Surgeon, and Wm. Hemstreet,
